

bio

Martha Thorn's paintings are characterized by having lush, active surfaces filled with process-driven drips and pours and contrasting, orderly planes. Thorn lives and works in Raleigh, NC. She received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with a concentration in Graphic Design from Western Carolina University.

Her work has been exhibited at Cameron Art Museum, Green Hill, The Carrack Modern and other venues throughout the Southeast.